ADOPTION APPLICATION

All animals available for adoption are spayed/neutered, vaccinated, including up-to-date rabies vaccine (if appropriate), and have been treated for worms and fleas. Once released, the new owner(s) assume all responsibility. This includes, but is not limited to, yearly exams, booster shots, rabies vaccinations, and dental and medical emergencies. It is the owner(s) responsibility to register the animal with the proper authority and keep record of any and all procedures from this point forward.
